

BRIAN EATON TRAIL OF CONTRITION

"A multi-talented, multi-instrumentalist with multi-tasking abilities"
—Illinois Entertainer

"an amazing composer and artist"
—Duane Williams, WWOZ 90.7 FM

Eaton's new boundary-pushing album fuses genres from jazz to Americana, paying homage to legends while carving its own path. The record weaves together musical terrains of intricate arrangements, lyrical melodies, atmospheric layers, and rustic rhythms that evoke the American heartland's sweeping landscapes and rural back roads.

BIO:

From sitting in on drums at an L.A. jazz club at age nine to jamming with Gilby Clarke (former Guns 'N Roses guitarist) in his older brother's band at 11, Brian Eaton found the spark in a pair of sticks that ignited his passion at an early age. The Allegra Drums Artist, musician, composer/songwriter, engineer, and producer has gone on to be a multi-genre force in jazz fusion, prog, and rock, who uses the studio as the ultimate instrument to wield his imaginative creativity. Eaton has been featured in Bass Musician Magazine, All About Jazz, World of Jazz, and more, and has received praise from jazz greats Jean-Luc Ponty, Paul Wertico (Pat Metheny Group), and Frank Catalano.
